NOTE TO THE SECOND EDITION The following Essay was read at the Annual Meeting of the Boston Society of Natural History, on the 27th of April, 1842, and published by direction of the Society In the present edition I have made a few verbal corrections, and added some collateral facts in an Appendix I have taken a rapid glance at what I conceive to be the peculiar traits of the Aboriginal race of America, as ...

THE WRETCHED OF THE EARTH by Frantz Fanon

Not so very long ago, the earth numbered two thousand million inhabitants: five hundred million men, and one thousand five hundred million natives. The former had the Word; the others had the use of it. Between the two there were hired kinglets, overlords, and a bourgeoisie, sham from beginning to end, which served as go-betweens in the colonies.
